1. Making orders

You agree to use our services as required for casual hire services for the period requested in your order summary.

2. Servicing your hired skip bin

Delivery and removal could take place at any time of the day depending on our bookings. We will endeavour to deliver your bin on the day that the delivery service has been booked, but we will not be liable for any failure or delays in delivery. Late delivery will not entitle the cancellation of any order or entitle any refunds or discounts. We reserve the right to defer the collection of any bin found to be either overloaded or loaded with prohibited material until such time as the customer rectifies the situation.

3. Skip bin placement and access

Bins cannot be lowered over fences or obstacles. Bins are not permitted on the road or on footpaths unless a permit from the council has been obtained. Bins placed on site are not to be re-positioned. We will not be liable for any damage caused to property when re-positioned by the customer.

You will provide satisfactory access for us and our agents at all reasonable times to deposit, inspect, collect/exchange Bins, General Waste, Clean Fill Waste and/or Garden Waste to remove Bins after the hire period.

Satisfactory access includes:

- Access – Bins must be placed on a hard and flat surface with access at least 4m wide
- Overhead obstructions – ensure Bin placement has no overhead obstructions such as powerlines or awnings this service requires a safe working height of 4m
- Vehicle/Pedestrian Movements – place Bins in areas with minimal pedestrian or vehicle traffic
- Exit from site – ensure Bin placement does not require our driver to reverse out of your site on to a high-speed or dangerous road crossing.

4. Using and looking after your Bin

12. Health and Safety

- (a) The health and safety of our Workers, our customers and our communities is of paramount importance to us. Both parties must consult, cooperate and coordinate, in respect to the provision of the Services so as to ensure that the nature of the Services, the risks arising from the Services, and the controls to be implemented to mitigate those risks are understood and to enable the parties to verify that the risks are being controlled and the Services are being performed safely.
- (b) You will immediately notify us of any event including Notifiable Events that cause or has the potential to cause an injury to any Worker at the Service Address.
- (c) You will assist us in relation to any investigation into a Notifiable Event or other incident.
- (d) Where required, you will attend meetings to discuss health and safety and provide us with all relevant information or documentation in relation to health and safety, including, but not limited to, your health and safety management plan and incident register as they relate to the Services.

13. Your Liability

In addition to the Charges, including Over Weight and Contamination Charges, you will be liable to us for any damage to our Bins whilst in your possession, fair wear and tear excluded, and for any direct loss, expense or liability we incur as a result of you not complying with this agreement. You will not be liable for any consequential loss, other indirect loss, expense, damage or injury such as loss of business or loss of profits sustained by us or any third party.

14. Our Liability

We will pay for any damage we cause to your property, to the extent caused by us, up to a maximum amount equivalent to all Charges paid by you under this agreement in the 12 month period prior to the damage occurring. However, we are not responsible for damage to any access ways or to pipes, cables or other fixtures beneath them caused by the weight of our vehicles. To the maximum extent permitted by law, we are not liable for any other direct, indirect or consequential loss, expense, damage or injury whatsoever, such as (without limitation) loss of business or loss of profits sustained by you or any third party as a result of any action or inaction of ours or as a result of you being unable to use the Bin or us not providing the Service.

15. Privacy

You authorise us to collect, keep and use personal information you provide to us to process payment for our Services, or for any other purpose that you authorise, in accordance with our privacy notice. You authorise any third party to provide us with the credit information about you and for us to use such information for any lawful purpose connected with our business.

You authorise us to disclose details of this agreement and of our dealings with you to third parties for the purposes of this agreement. We comply with the Privacy Act 2020, and you have the right to access and correct any personal information we hold about you (there may be a reasonable charge for this).

16. Personal Property Securities Act

In relation to registration of our ownership in the Bin under the Personal Property Securities Act 1999 (PPSA) you waive the right to receive a verification statement. On our request you shall promptly execute any further documents and do anything else required by us to give effect to this agreement and to ensure that the security interest created under this agreement constitutes and remains a first ranking perfected security interest over the Bin.

17. Communication

We will communicate with you (including notices) via text or email. Please send all your communications to <https://www.easybins.co.nz/contact>

18. Force Majeure

Neither party will be liable to the other for any failure to perform any of the obligations under this agreement during any period, and to the extent in which such performance is delayed by circumstances beyond its reasonable control and that could not have been avoided by the exercise of reasonable care, including fire, flood, earthquake, war, embargo, riot, epidemic, pandemic or the intervention of any governmental authority. During any of these events we may have to change the frequency or delivery of our Services. The parties will work together to ensure that as an essential service, waste collection continues as far as practical during or after a force majeure event.

19. Consumer Guarantees Act

(a) Unless agreed otherwise with us, you represent that you are acquiring the Services for business purposes, and accordingly, subject to (b) below, to the fullest extent permitted by law and solely to the extent it is fair and reasonable to do so, the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 does not apply to the supply of the Services.

(b) To the extent the Consumer Guarantees Act applies, nothing in this agreement limits your rights under that Act unless it would be fair and reasonable to do so.
